- you have a judgment of divorce, separate maintenance, or an order of filiation but support was not included; or
- you already have a support order through this office and you want the court order reviewed/changed.

By using this form, you are representing yourself in a court action regarding child support issues. You must follow these instructions carefully and fill out the form completely.

NOTE: Regardless of the amount of support you are requesting, the court is required to use the Michigan Child Support Guidelines in determining the correct amount, unless the court finds that using the Guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Before you fill in the Case No., get your court papers for divorce, separate maintenance, paternity, or family support and copy the Case No. from those court papers onto this form.

For example, if your name is in the box that says "plaintiff", then you should write your name in the "plaintiff" box on this motion form.

You are the "moving party". Once you have written the names where they belong, you must check the box "moving party" in the same box as your name.

- Check only one box. If you have a judgment or order for divorce, separate maintenance, paternity, or family support, read it carefully to find out if there is any information in it about support. - D – F. Check these boxes only if you checked box a. in C above. Read your court papers for divorce, separate maintenance, paternity, or family support to find – out who was ordered to pay support, child care, and health care; how much; and how often. Write this information here.
- G. Check this box only if you checked box a. in C above and conditions have changed that require a change in support. Explain in as much detail as possible what has happened. If you need more space, use a separate sheet of paper. Print this information as neatly as you can. You will need 3 copies of this sheet to attach to 3 copies of this form.
