If the child’s birthday falls on a holiday, the holiday takes precedence over the birthday.
- The parties shall alternate Spring Break each year beginning with Father/Mother having the Spring Break in _____. Spring Break is defined as 6:00pm the day school recesses until 6:00pm the day before school is to resume. If there are no school age children, then Spring Break begins Easter Sunday at 8:00pm until the following Sunday at 8:00pm.
- The parties shall share the summer break each year in alternating one week blocks, beginning with Father/Mother having the first one week block. Summer parenting time is defined as beginning at 6:00pm the Friday of the week school recesses until 6:00pm the day before school is to resume in the fall. If there are no school age children, summer parenting time is defined as beginning 6:00pm June 1 until 6:00pm September 1. Summer school which interferes with the above schedule shall only be permitted if such schooling is required for the child to proceed to the next grade, or the parties agree otherwise.

7. The parties shall share the Christmas Break each year by alternating the two portions of the Break as follows:

CHRISTMAS BREAK	EVEN YEARS	ODD YEARS
FIRST PORTION	MOTHER	FATHER
SECOND PORTION	FATHER	MOTHER

Christmas Break is defined as 6:00pm the day school recesses until 6:00pm the day before school resumes. The parties are to count the total number of days inclusive in the defined break (not including the Christmas Eve and Christmas Day holidays) and equally divide the break into two portions. One day is defined as 6:00pm that day until the following day at 6:00pm. If there are no school age children, the Christmas Break is defined as December 16th at 6:00pm until January 1st at 6:00pm.

8. Alternate weekend and midweek parenting time is not exercised during the Spring Break, Christmas Break and summer vacations. The weekend parenting time schedule resumes following the designated break periods, using the same rotation that was practiced prior to the start of the break. Holidays take precedence over regularly scheduled parenting times unless stated otherwise in the court order.
9. Unless stated otherwise in the court order, the parties shall share transportation for parenting time, with the parent whose parenting time is about to begin being responsible for picking up the child at the residence of the other parent. Either parent may designate a third party who is a licensed driver, 18 years of age or older and with whom the child/ren is familiar, to provide transportation for any parenting time.
10. Parties are allowed a thirty minute grace period for parenting time exchanges. The parent may appear as early as 15 minutes before the designated time and as late as 15 minutes after the designated time.
11. The parties shall be allowed reasonable phone contact while the child is at the residence of the other parent.
12. Father/Mother shall notify the other parent within a reasonable time prior to the start of any scheduled parenting time, if he/she will be unable to exercise scheduled parenting time. Upon written notification to the Friend of the Court Office of three consecutive no shows without notification, the Friend of the Court Office may initiate enforcement regarding the alleged violation.
13. Each party shall be responsible for obtaining a school schedule for themselves. Each party is further responsible for obtaining school records and medical records for themselves.
14. Denial of parenting time and violation of a parenting time provision: All alleged denials of parenting time and alleged denials of parenting time provisions must be reported, in writing, to the Friend of the Court Office within 56 days of when the alleged allegation took place. You must appear at the pickup location at the court ordered time to claim denial of parenting time. The Friend of the Court will provide written notification to the parties on how to proceed with each specific allegation of violation.
